PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Are you up to date on the current legal landscape for construction in both the public and private sectors? Are you keeping up with all of the recent trends, decisions, and topics that have come about in Louisiana's construction industry? Join us for a presentation that will not only get you up to date on all the latest happenings but also provide you with insight on some pitfalls that can be used to either protect the rights of contractors or defend against disputes that arise during the course of construction.

FEATURED SPEAKER:

Michael Blackwell received his B.A. in English from the University of South Alabama and graduated from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law (J.D., magna cum laude).

His practice focuses primarily on the areas of construction litigation, surety law, commercial industry contracts and litigation, insurance defense, property litigation, and complex civil litigation. His bar admissions include all Louisiana State courts, the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Western, and Middle Districts of Louisiana, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

Mr. Blackwell has presented seminars entitled Construction Disputes: Effective (and Practical) Legal Negotiation Strategies and Fundamentals of Construction Contracts in Louisiana: Understanding the Issues. He was also the managing print editor for the Loyola Law Review, a brief writer and oralist for the Jerome Prince Memorial Evidence Moot Court Team, and a William L. Crowe, Sr. scholar.
