PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

No matter your role in the public construction industry in Louisiana, knowing the Louisiana Public Bid Law (R.S. 38:2211-2296) is critical to successfully delivering public construction projects. Owners, architect-engineers, contractors, CM/PMs, testing labs, and others working with public clients must stay current on the changes in the Public Bid Law each year and must also understand how these changes affect their projects and clients. This knowledge is critical for public contracting and procurement, as well as bid protests and contractual disputes.

This meeting will provide you with an enhanced understanding of the recent changes and developments in the Public Bid Law resulting from this year's Legislative Session as well as how these updates have been upheld in recent case law.

FEATURED SPEAKER

Steven B. Loeb is a partner with the law firm of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, LLP. Mr. Loeb's principal areas of practice include building and heavy construction, A&E professional practice liability, public bid law, ADA, mediation and arbitration. His experience includes litigation of complex multi-party construction matters, drafting legislation and standard form agreements for the AIA, and arbitration of disputes between owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, sureties and design professionals.

Mr. Loeb has also handled complex insurance and surety claims all as part of his construction law practice. Mr. Loeb is a panel arbitrator with the American Arbitration Association, and a Certified Mediator on Americans with Disabilities Act matters through Key Bridge Foundation/U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. Loeb has taught several courses in the LSU School of Construction and the Southern University School of Architecture. He is recognized in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers in the area of Construction.
